FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offenses of:

Interference with Commerce by Robbery, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a), as charged in count 2; and Discharging and Brandishing a Firearm in Furtherance of a Crime of Violence, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(ii), (iii), as charged in count 3 of the Indictment.

JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the court that the defendant, James Russell Davis, is hereby committed on counts 2 and 3 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of One Hundred Sixty-Six (166) months. This term consists of 46 months on count 2, and 120 months on count 3, to be served consecutively to the term imposed on count 2.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $166,640, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
Sectran Security	$166,640

The court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 90 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendant Deneyvous Jayan Hobson (Docket No. 2:23CR00102-1) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment, to the extent and for the amount that each is determined liable for the same victim losses. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

USA vs. James Russell Davis

Docket No.: 2:23-cr-00102-FLA-2

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The court recommends the Bureau of Prisons evaluate the defendant's eligibility for the 500-hour residential drug abuse program known as RDAP, and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 (five) years. This term consists of 3 years on count 2, and 5 years on count 3, of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
7. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation & Pretrial Services Office.
8. The defendant shall not be self-employed nor be employed in a position that does not provide regular pay stubs with the appropriate deductions for taxes, unless approved by the Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use any name other than the defendant's true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
10. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
11. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to the defendant to be a member of the West Boulevard Crips Gang and others known to the defendant to be participants in the West Boulevard Crips Gang's criminal activities, with the exception of the defendant's family members. The defendant may not wear, display, use, or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the West Boulevard Crips Gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the West Boulevard Crips Gang.
12. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to the defendant to be a location where members of the West Boulevard Crips Gang meet or assemble.

USA vs. James Russell Davis

Docket No.: 2:23-cr-00102-FLA-2

The court authorizes the Probation & Pretrial Services Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of this court.

Defendant is informed of his right to appeal.

The court recommends to the United States Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be housed within the Central District of California to facilitate contact with his family.

On the government's motion, count 1 of the Indictment is ordered dismissed as to this defendant only.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
